T. Sean Teague, President of ManageWatch

T. Sean Teague is President of ManageWatch, a leading provider of Network Management and Business Solutions.

ManageWatch enables mid-market organizations and Fortune 1000 companies to drive business transformation and improve operating performance by adapting and implementing advanced technologies—carried out by proven, cross-industry, multi-platform experts that are dedicated to customer satisfaction.

Sean got his business start working for Mark Cuban in 1992. In 1994 Sean left to found, build, and sell Erapmus, Inc., a professional services firm, which provided outsourced network services nationwide. Erapmus did extensive network integration for the telecom industry, helping companies such as WorldCom, PrimeCo, and McLeodUSA to quickly deploy computer networks across the country.

Sean held the post of Strategic Business Unit President for Broad Band Utilities after the acquisition of Erapmus. Broad Band Utilities was sold to Vanguard in 2007.

As President of ManageWatch, Sean is responsible for business profitability by managing, Operations, Sales, Marketing and Finance. With more than 18 years in Consulting, Networking Engineering and Managed Service, he brings a unique blend of business acumen, entrepreneurial experience, technical knowledge, and company leadership and vision. As a hands-on manager, he helps clients identify the business and technical solutions that best meet their strategic business objectives.

Sean maintains ownership interests in Resource Domain, Creative Clinical Marketing and American Power Yoga.

Sean is a graduate of Oklahoma State University with both a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in Marketing, and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in Management.

Having helped many companies reach their business objectives, Sean is available to speak and make presentations on a variety of business, technical and entrepreneur related topics. Interested parties are encouraged to contact him at Steague@managewatch.com.
